

ROCK YOUR ENGLISH!

CHAPTER 12: Answers

POP QUIZ

- 1 Razorlight
- 2 The Clash
- 3 He was the drummer of Nirvana, who many people credit with pioneering the grunge movement in music.
- 4 Ray LaMontagne
- 5 Chicago

EAR CANDY

- 1 I think he means either his heart or his soul when he refers to 'the biggest part of me'.
- 2 If something 'slips away', then it fades away or starts to end, or is nearly lost.
- 3 If you 'regret' something, then you feel sorry for something that you did. You can use it in different ways:
 - He will always regret what he said to his girlfriend when he was drunk.
 - She will live to regret the day she decided to marry that loser.
 - I will never regret writing Rock Your English!

Choose the right option (page 115)

- 1 When
- 2 If
- 3 If
- 4 If
- 5 When

DON'T BELIEVE THE HYPE!

Correct the sentences (1) (page 116)

- 1 If I have time, I will help you later today.
- 2 I will give him the message if I see him later today.
- 3 If I find it, I will return your book today.
- 4 I might have a new job soon if I look very hard.

Correct the sentences (2) (page 116)

- 1 If it rains later this afternoon, I will cancel our picnic.
- 2 If she comes over later today, I will be very happy!
- 3 I will be so proud if my daughter wins the race!
- 4 He will take me to the station if I ask.

Lyrical assignments

- 1 'To freak out' means to lose control of your emotions. You can be either really happy, or really angry. For example: 'He freaked out when he found out that he won the lottery! And she freaked out when she found out that she had thrown away the winning lottery ticket.'
If you 'freak someone out', then you cause someone else to freak out.
- 2 The opposite of 'to disappear' is 'to appear'.
The opposite of 'to distrust' is 'to trust'.
'The opposite of 'to disown' is 'to own'.

Fill in the blanks (page 117)

- 1 will
- 2 will
- 3 go, will
- 4 will, take
- 5 rings, will, answer
- 6 Will, invites
- 7 Will, ask
- 8 need/use, have/borrow/use
- 9 go/move, speak/learn
- 10 is, will

Lyrical assignments

- 3 It seems that they hate the taxman, because he is taxing everything, from the street that you drive on to your own feet! I would hate the taxman too if he did that to me!
- 4 You would need a bulletproof vest if you thought that your life was in danger, or if you were in a dangerous situation; for example, visiting a war zone.
- 5 I think he is saying he will drink less or try to stop drinking.
- 6 I think 'if I stay it will be double' means that if they do not leave, the amount of trouble they will have will be twice as much! Don't mess with the Clash!

Answer the questions (page 118)

- 1 If I get a chance to go to the movies this weekend, I will see Rambo 5.
- 2 I will buy a new pet spider if I get 100 Euros for my birthday.
- 3 If I get the change to go on vacation this summer, I will go to Disneyland Paris.
- 4 If my neighbour asks me to come and help him fix his car, I will say 'maybe tomorrow'.
- 5 If my brother tells me a secret, I won't keep it!
- 6 If the weather is nice tomorrow, I will play beach volleyball.
- 7 If my bike gets stolen, I will take my private jet to school tomorrow.
- 8 I will go see Kanye West if I get free tickets to a concert of my choice.
- 9 If I have time later tonight, I will watch MTV Cribs.
- 10 No way will I play darts with my loser friends if they ask me to join them!

